

Mosisa bio

Mosisa Worku served for over 36 years in agricultural research and contributed in the development and dissemination of impactful maize technologies. He worked in Ethiopian Institute of Agricultural Research from 1985 to 2012 as a maize breeder. He also served as a national maize research coordinator of Ethiopia and Bako federal national maize research center director (2001 to 2002 and 2006-2011). In addition, he worked as a maize seed system specialist while he was working at CIMMYT's Global Maize Program based in Nairobi, Kenya (2012-2021). Education: BSc and MSc (Haramaya University, Ethiopia), PhD (Hannover University, Germany).